Obituary

*G*regory Edward Hill was born July 31, 1948 in Oakland, California to Carson Hill and Elizabeth Wright-Hill. God blessed them with this one son, who was the love of their life. Greg's father, Carson Edward Hill, preceded him in death when Greg was only two-years old.

Gregory received his Christian Education at Providence Baptist Church in Richmond, California under the pastorate of Rev. W.L. LaBeaux. Greg was a graduate of Harry Ells High School, class of 1966. He received a degree in sociology, from the University of California at Berkeley in 1970. His education presented him with many opportunities. He was hired as an analyst and buyer for UC Berkeley, and later employed with the United States Postal Service where he worked for the past twenty-three years. Gregory was an unselfish and loving man, filled with humor. His interests were music and sports, and he had a great love of photography. Greg will be remembered fondly by his younger family members for his delicious homemade ice cream.

Gregory was a loving father to his daughter, Leslie. He was also a devoted and loving son. He cared for and assisted his mother without hesitation. Gregory leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Elizabeth Grant of Richmond, California; his daughter, Leslie Blodgett-Hill of Richmond, California; one stepbrother, Daryl Grant of Las Vegas, Nevada; one Aunt, Willa Thomas of Richmond, California and a host of relatives and friends who loved him dearly.

"Precious Memories" How They Flinger

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear not evil; for Thou art with me. Thou preparest a table for me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
